

Project Alpha

Project Alpha is an internal customer-support automation platform.

The backend uses Python and FastAPI.

The primary database is MySQL.

The Platform Engineering team owns the backend API.

The project provides automated ticket classification and routing.